There were 26 baptisms last year and I will be inviting the parents to meet together and to share how you bring up your baptised children in the Catholic faith.

Baptisms continue throughout the year, Communion masses are in May and Confirmation celebrated at Easter for Adults and December for young Adults in year 8.

The church has central heating but it is a cold building with thin glass windows and so loses heat quickly. I am sorry it feels so cold in Winter, although at least warmer than outside.

In view of the cold, gentlemen are welcome to wear hats this weekend. Ladies are always welcome to do so.

The children's liturgy at the 11am mass begins this week; after an invitation, children of primary school age spend time in the (warm) children's chapel for the first half of mass understanding the gospel in an age-appropriate way.
