The Salvation Army, where the homeless drop-in centre runs each week, have announced their intention to terminate their arrangement with Faith in Action (FIA), thus evicting the project. Formal notice has not yet been served but FIA expect this to happen at the next meeting on 28th May. As a matter of urgency, FIA have therefore launched a petition against this and would hugely value our community's support, there will be an opportunity to sign this petition after every mass.

The Good Counsel network is focussed on dissuading women from an early termination of pregnancy and now also voluntary euthanasia. Their methods of encounter and persuasion have led to strong opposition and legal barriers to their work.

This is consistent with the Catholic idea of a Seamless Garment, protection of life from the earliest moments to a natural end of life.
