The three contactless devices in the narthex are working as is the 4th by the candles. Please let me know as soon as you can if there are problems.

The Disasters Emergency committee (DEC) are promoting the idea of raising money to help the people of Venezuela whose lives and housing have been devastated by the earthquake.

CAFOD is part of this initiative and with its international contacts is well placed to provide support.

The Contactless devices have been adjusted so that a fund for Venezuela has been added. This means a donation would be separately noted and can be sent to help in the next few days.

There is a Symposium on Mary at St Mary's West Croydon, near a tram stop which is advertised on the noticeboard. The second day is on devotion to Mary in the early church, Fr Faber, Cardinal Newman and Louis-Marie de Montfort. Bok at A Day With Mary - International Symposium 2026
