Holy Hour for the Sick at St. George's Hospital

When we think of ministry to the sick, we can often think of the valuable practical work of visiting those who are unwell; however, there is a spiritual dimension to the fight against sickness, as well. To that end, the Catholic Chaplaincy at St. George's Hospital is seeking to recruit a group of volunteers who would be willing and able to offer an hour a week to come to the Hospital Chapel and pray for all sick, the dying, the recently deceased and the staff at the hospital. The Holy Hours will commence 24th September from 10.45am - 11.45am, and take place each Thursday. We will say the Rosary and a Litany of Medical Patron Saints and have some time for quiet adoration, concluding with Benediction. For those who wish, Mass follows at midday.
